The Strike Situation

FRIDAY
INDIANAPOLIS—Judge Anderson of the United States district court this morning issued an injunction, restraining the officials of the United Mine Workers from striking tonight. A hearing on the order is set for November 8. The order enjoins the officials from starting or encouraging the strike on the broad general grounds that disaster threatens the country and that the strike would tie up the nation's transportation system. The injunction was issued at the request of the Department of Justice.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—Assuming a definite attitude, Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners, said that it is beyond the power of any force to stop the strike. He characterized the injunction as an attempt to enslave the working men and women of the nation.

SATURDAY
CHICAGO—Four hundred thousand coal miners are on strike today, according to estimates made by officials of the labor organization who have received reports from many states. Last night it was said that 395,000 men were out but today this figure was raised and the belief was expressed that fully a half million would be out by Monday night.

As a result of the strike, the production of coal in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Colorado, Kansas, Montana, Wyoming, Texas and Washington has ceased. Operators generally are not trying to work the mines.

On the part of the operators, there is little disposition to dispute the figures of the unions as to the number of men out. They admitted that more men are walking out today.

From North Dakota the report was received that 1500 lignite miners had remained at work in compliance with orders received from the unions' national headquarters.

MONDAY

WASHINGTON.—The first real break in the coal strike was noted today when fifteen union mines in the fields of West Virginia resumed operation. All of the miners returned to their places and company officials announced that production would be up to normal tomorrow.

TODAY

(Special to the Sentinel)
WASHINGTON—The Government cannot accept the proposal of organized labor to end the coal strike by vacating the injunction against the officials of the United Mine Workers of America, Assistant Attorney General Ames announced today. Ames issued the following statement: "The strike is a violation of law. As long as it continues we are going to proceed in the courts. The dispute between the mine owners and the workers is an entirely different question. That they can settle in their own way. The Government cannot tolerate continued violations of law, such as this strike constitutes."

SEATTLE.—Guy L. Carlton, a police sergeant, was instantly killed last night by Motorcycle policeman Charles A. Roselius when the latter found the sergeant joy-riding with Mrs. Roselius.

John T. Towers, the mining man, was in town from Kupreanoff Island the first of the week.

Third Annual Red Cross Roll Call Now In Progress

The annual Red Cross drive, known as the Third Red Cross Roll Call, opened last Sunday and will close on Armistice Day, Tuesday, November 11.

The committee in charge of the drive is composed of J. G. Grant, chairman; Leo McCormack, Wm. Lewis, H. W. Gartley, Wm. Patterson, H. D. Campbell, Oscar Carlson, G. C. Mitchell, and Charles Benjamin.

Every one is requested to contribute one dollar when answering the roll call. Do not feel slighted if no one calls on you, but hunt up some member of the committee and make your contribution. Each person answering the roll call will receive a 1920 button. You should wear the button at least until after the drive is over. On Monday, November 10 the committee will be out in full force soliciting every person not wearing a 1920 Red Cross button.

Wrangell has made a brilliant record during previous Red Cross drives and there is no doubt that during the present drive the town will sustain her enviable reputation.

PRESIDENT WILSON URGES A HEARTY RESPONSE TO THIRD ANNUAL ROLL CALL

[Writes before illness of enduring domestic program and lesser temporary foreign power.]

As President of the United States and as President of the American Red Cross, I recommend and urge a generous response to the Third Red Cross Roll Call which opens on November the second with the observance of Red Cross Sunday and appropriately closes on November the 11th, the first anniversary of the signing of the Armistice.

Twenty million adults joined the Red Cross during the war, prompted by a patriotic desire to render service to their country and to the cause for which the United States was engaged in war. Our patriotism should stand the test of peace as well as the test of war, and it is an intelligently patriotic program which the Red Cross proposes, a continuance of service to our soldiers and sailors who look to it for many things, and a transference to the problems of peace at home of the experience and methods which it acquired during the war.

It is on membership more than money contributions that the stress of the present campaign is laid, for the Red Cross seeks to associate the people in welfare work throughout the land, especially in those communities where neither official nor unofficial provision has been made for adequate public health and social service.

It is in the spirit of democracy that the people should undertake their own welfare activities, and the National Red Cross wisely intends to exert upon community action a stimulating and coordinating influence and to place the energies of the organization behind all sound public health and welfare agencies.

The American Red Cross does not purpose indefinite prolongation of its relief work abroad, a policy which would lay an unjust burden upon our own people and tend to undermine the self-reliance of the people relieved, but there is a necessary work of completion to be performed before the American Red Cross can honorably withdraw from Europe.

Regarding Quarantine

[Cablegram]
Juneau, Nov. 4, 1919.

Mayor, Wrangell.
Account of three cases of small pox at Petersburg the town has been quarantined and steamers not taking any passengers from there. Health officer at Petersburg has been instructed to forbid small boats leaving for other ports. Advise watch all small boats until quarantine is lifted, but no reason to interfere with regular steamer travel which is being safeguarded. Will advise when quarantine is lifted.

RIGGS,
Governor.

Frank Dandy Passes Away

Frank Dandy passed away Monday morning after a short illness. Burial took place Tuesday afternoon the funeral being conducted by Rev. H. P. Corser.

Mr. Dandy was about 59 years of age. Little is known of his early life. William E. Lloyd, who was formerly in partnership with Mr. Dandy, says he thinks Dandy was born in the city of London, and partly raised there.

Mr. Dandy first came to Wrangell during the rush of '98, and has resided in this region ever since. Before coming to Wrangell he spent three years on the Skeena river, and prior to that time he was located in Seattle for several years.

The only surviving relative of which anything is known is a stepson, Charles Morse, who left Wrangell last year for Portland. Mr. Dandy manifested the affection of a real father for this stepson, and a few days before his death, stated that he expected Morse back in Wrangell soon, but did not say where the boy was located.

U. S. Commissioner Wm. G. Thomas appointed Wm. E. Lloyd administrator of the Dandy estate. The Commissioner also appointed the following appraisers: P. C. McCormack, L. M. Churchill and J. W. Pritchett.

The Sentinel is in receipt of word from Mr. and Mrs. J. Nelson Cole who recently left Wrangell to spend the winter in a sunnier climate, that they have located for a time in Los Angeles. Mrs. Cole is delighted with California but Mr. Cole still thinks Alaska is the place.

W. E. Parrot has bought Paul Owen's boat shop. Two 32-ft. fishing boats will be built in this shop at once by John Peterson.

orably withdraw from Europe. The Congress of the United States has imposed upon the Red Cross a continuing responsibility abroad by authorizing the Secretary of War to transfer to the American Red Cross such surplus army medical supplies and supplementary and dietary food stuffs now in Europe as shall not be required by the Army, to be used by the Red Cross to relieve the distress which continues in certain countries of Europe as a result of the war.

To finance these operations, to conclude work which was begun during the war, and to carry out some comparatively inexpensive constructive plans for assisting peoples in eastern Europe to develop their own welfare organizations, the American Red Cross requires, in addition to membership fees, a sum of money small in comparison with the gifts pouring into its treasury by our generous people during the war.

Both the greater enduring domestic program and the lesser temporary foreign program of the Red Cross deserve enthusiastic support, and I venture to hope that its peace-time membership will exceed rather than fall below its impressive war membership.

WOODROW WILSON.

Armistice Day To Be Observed In Wrangell

Returned Soldiers and Sailors Requested to Appear In Their Uniforms.

Armistice Day, Tuesday, November 11, will be observed in Wrangell by a short patriotic program, followed by a dance at the Redmen's hall.

Mr. G. C. Mitchell, of the Wrangell Public school, will be the principal speaker. A special section will be reserved for returned soldiers and sailors who are requested to appear in their uniforms.

The first anniversary of the signing of the armistice is of great significance to the people of America and the world. This year, and in all years to come it will be a day of public rejoicing. Wrangell, while not attempting anything in the way of pageantry, should not fail to generously display the national colors next Tuesday. Let every business house, residence and cabin put out the flags of our country. And those who are fortunate enough to possess the flags of our Allies should display them also.

The program for the Wrangell celebration will begin at 8:30 p. m. in Redmen's hall.

No admission will be charged to either the patriotic exercises or the dance.

Everyone is urged to show his Americanism by attending this patriotic observance.

Big dance at Rink Saturday night after show. Good music.

Mrs. P. C. McCormack entertained a party of the younger set at her home Saturday evening at a Halloween party. She was ably assisted by Mrs. R. C. Mathis and Mrs. W. W. McLaughlin. The guests came swathed in sheets and pillow cases and white masks. The early part of the evening was spent in a guessing contest in which the young people tried to guess who the other members of the party were. The unmasking was followed by various other guessing games, fortune telling and riddles. At midnight a delightful supper was served. The table as well as the rooms were attractively decorated with shaded Jack-o'-lanterns and blackcats. Those present were: Misses May Crosno, Ann O'Connor, Mary Armstrong, Alma Allender, Consuelo Grigwire, Olive LaBounty, June Elliott; Messdames P. C. McCormack, R. C. Mathis, W. W. McLaughlin; Messrs. Harry McCormack, Leonard Campbell, Ernest Campbell, Lloyd Dalgity, Ole Johnson, Gordon Mitchell, Peter McCormack, Jr., P. C. McCormack.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Berg, who were married in Ketchikan a few days ago, arrived in Wrangell yesterday on a short visit to relatives here. They will return to Ketchikan on the City of Seattle, and a few days later will leave Ketchikan for Seattle on the gas boat Goldenrod. Mr. and Mrs. Berg will spend the winter in Seattle.

Misses May Crosno and Ann O'Connor entertained a small party of young people at their home last Thursday evening. Cards, music and dainty refreshments were the main features of the evening. The guests were: Misses Allender, Armstrong, McDonald, Elliott; Messrs. Wickstrom, Jakobitz, Mitchell, Ole Johnson, Leo McCormack and Harry McCormack.

Big dance at Rink Saturday night after show. Good music.

Mr. Harvey, who is interested in mining on Duncan Canal, is planning on operating his property on Woedodski Island next spring. It is located near the Olympic mine, and Mr. Harvey has been developing it for several years.—Empire.

Nussbaumer Receives Wonderful Picture

Among the prominent personages who appear in the picture are the President and Mrs. Wilson, the Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker, the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing, the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. McAdoo, and Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the President.

Miss Helen Hofstad Has Recovered

The publisher of the Sentinel this week received a personal letter from Thor Hofstad who is now with his mother and sister at Poulsbo, Wash. Regarding his sister's condition Thor says: "Helen is up and around again, and it sure is great to see how she is improving. Anyone seeing her now for the first time would find it hard to believe that she has gone through such a prolonged and serious illness."

Thor recently entered the employ of the Standard Oil company and is holding the position of first assistant engineer on the Petroleum II.

The Present Crisis

November 9 at 7:30 p. m.

That our country today, is passing through the most serious crisis in its history, is the opinion of many. What has brought it about? The Literary Digest has a cartoon where old and young are worshipping the goddess, Pleasure. Behind the statue, the monster, Destruction is rubbing his hands in great glee. Is this the cause of the present crisis? Will the Master mourn over America, and say: "I would have saved you, but ye would not." Come and help in the service.

Is it not a work of patriotism to do so? Can anything else save?

Refuses to Accept Sawyer's Resignation

Special to the Sentinel

KETCHIKAN — Sawyer was persuaded to reconsider his resignation as secretary of the Alaska Labor Union. He was also elected treasurer.

[Ketchikan Chronicle.]

Following a somewhat stormy session of the Alaska Labor Union, held on Saturday night, B. R. Sawyer, secretary, tendered his resignation verbally, it became known today. The resignation was not acted upon Saturday but will be on Wednesday night, as the secretary made it effective for that date.

The storm of the meeting centered about attorney's bills as one was presented from one attorney for approximately $600, for services to date in the case wherein the labor union secretary is charged with having failed to register under the Selective Service act.

This attorney's bill, in addition to the fact that messages had been sent to Ralph Pierce of Seattle to come to Ketchikan to defend Sawyer, brought on the verbal clash which resulted in the latter saying, "Well, I'll hand in my resignation right now, effective at the next regular meeting (Wednesday night)."

At first it was planned to have

GRIP, INFLUENZA

Hamil's Wizard Oil a Reliable, Antiseptic Preventive

During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and snuff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up an antiseptic wall of defense against "flu" germs.

Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza.

Get it from druggists for 30c. If not satisfied, return the bottle and get your money back.

Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30c at druggists. Guaranteed.
